Teamwork is Key

Many escape puzzles require collaboration. Ensure that communication is open among team members. Share findings, discuss strategies, and divide tasks based on each player's strengths. This collaborative approach often leads to quicker solutions.

Keep Track of Clues

As you progress through the game, take diligent notes of any clues or items you discover. Create a system for organizing this information, such as categorizing clues by their functions or the puzzles they relate to. This method will prevent confusion and help you recall vital information when needed.

Stay Calm and Focused
